

General Membership Meeting

April 21

Wilmington Christiana Hilton Hotel

The following course is pending approval by the Board of Professional Regulation for 2 pdh credits and will be held as part of the General Membership Meeting on April 21st:

Surveyors' Issue & Answers:
Ethical Business Practices

A 2-hour panel discussion on the interplay between ethics and business practices. The panel will consist of past and present professional members of the Delaware Board of Professional Land Surveyors.

Attendees should submit, along with their registration, situations or questions regarding experiences encountered, either as an employer or employee, that they would like to see discussed. Audience questions will be permitted on submitted materials is complete. Former Board Chair and present Vice-Chair Michael T. Szymanski, PLS will serve as moderator.